

2022 Ohio Election Recap

Statewide Race Results

- Mike Dewine wins re-election in the Ohio Governor's race over Nan Whaley (62.79 percent)
- Dave Yost wins the Attorney General race over Jeff Crossman (60.37 percent)
- Keith Faber takes the Auditor's race over Taylor Sappington (58.98 percent)
- Frank LaRose will continue as Secretary of State, defeating Chelsea Clark (D) and Terpsehore Maras (I) (59.54 percent)
- Robert Sprague won the Treasurer's race over Scott Schertzer (58.78 percent)
- JD Vance will be the next Senator, replacing retiring Senator Rob Portman

Ohio House Delegation

- 1st District: Greg Landsman (D)
- 2nd District: Brad Wenstrup (R)
- 3rd District: Joyce Beatty (D)
- 4th District: Jim Jordan (R)
- 5th District: Bob Latta (R)
- 6th District: Bill Johnson (R)
- 7th District: Max Miller (R)
- 8th District: Warren Davidson (R)
- 9th District: Marcy Kaptur (D)
- 10th District: Mike Turner (R)
- 11th District: Shontel Brown (D)
- 12th District: Troy Balderson (R)
- 13th District: Emilia Sykes (D)
- 14th District: David Joyce (R)
- 15th District: Mike Carey (R)

Ohio Statehouse Update

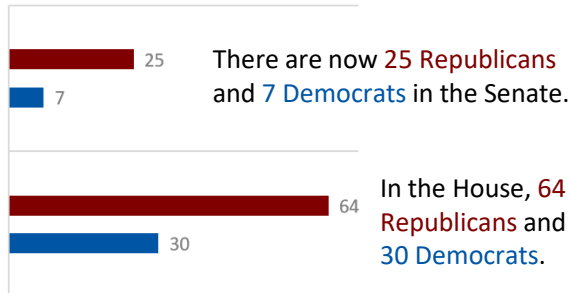

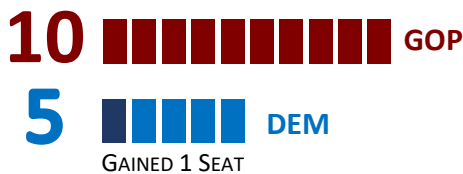

House

- Republicans are poised to expand their House majority by 4 to 68 to 31, with a the biggest surprise win by Republican Nick Santucci in traditionally Democratic Trumbull County.
- Of note presumed candidate for Ohio House Speaker, Derek Merrin, won a tight Toledo area race that was considered a tossup.

Senate

- Republicans picked up one seat with Michelle Reynolds, defeating incumbent Democrat Senator Tina Maharath to give them a super majority of 26-7.
- Senator Matt Huffman (R-Lima) will remain Senate President in the next General Assembly.

House Seats Won In Ohio

Republicans swept all of the Ohio Supreme Court Races, including the election of new Chief Justice Sharon Kennedy.

Taft Advisors comprises 32 Members serving all Taft markets, including the newly opened Washington, DC office.

