complex, major commercial properties and assets. He has also handled a wide variety of complex business, construction and real estate litigation matters, and has regularly represented a variety of parties in interest to bankruptcy matters involving construction companies and/or projects.

Mr. Lowe's significant recent engagements include the successful representation of a major investor and purchaser of assets in connection with Chapter 11 proceedings and related litigation involving the Claddagh Irish Pub and Restaurant chain (S.D. Ohio), a major bankruptcy trustee representation in In re: Richland Hospital, Inc. (N.D. Ohio), resulting in 100% recovery for unsecured creditors and substantial recoveries for other claims. Before that, Mr. Lowe represented General Electric Company, General Electric Capital Corporation, and Minnesota Power, Inc. in connection with multi-million dollar claims in the LTV Steel Company Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases (N.D. Ohio), and acted as local counsel for Minnesota Power in connection with its successful purchase of LTV's power generation plants in Northern Minnesota. Mr. Lowe was also significantly involved in the representation of the Superintendent of Insurance in Ohio in his capacity as the Liquidator of the P.I.E. Mutual Insurance Company, which until its liquidation proceedings, was the nation's largest medical malpractice insurance carrier. Mr. Lowe was also lead counsel to the unsecured creditors committee in the Chapter 11 cases of Economy Lodging Systems Inc., and ELS Lodging, Inc., f.k.a. Knights Lodging, Inc. (N.D. Ohio), the owners/franchisors of the Knights Inns motel chain. These were the most significant Chapter 11 cases in Cleveland during the second half of the 1990's, and achieved a distribution of almost 50% on allowed unsecured creditors claims.

Mr. Lowe is a member of the Board of Trustees of Easter Seals, Northern Ohio, and of Elefence International, Inc., a non-profit organization facilitating wildlife conservation and humanitarian projects in Africa.
