MISSIA H. VASELANEY focuses her practice on estate planning for business owners and individuals. She has worked with clients to both plan and administer estates that have ranged from the very modest to the large and sophisticated. Where the need has arisen, Ms. Vaselaney has represented clients in Probate Litigation matters and before Federal and State Taxing authorities.

In 2002, Ms. Vaselaney became an OSBA Board Certified Specialist in Estate Planning, Trust & Probate Law. She is a featured speaker both nationally and state-wide on estate planning and other related matters on behalf of banks, brokerage firms and other professional associations. Ms. Vaselaney has over twenty years of experience as a practicing attorney and CPA (currently inactive).

She is a member of the American, Ohio, and Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Associations. She was past chair of the former Cleveland Bar Association's Estate Planning, Probate and Trust Law Section. Ms. Vaselaney is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and has been a member of the Steering Committee for the AICPA's National Advanced Estate Planning Conference since 2001. She is a member of the Estate Planning Council of Cleveland and a former Trustee.

Ms. Vaselaney is a former Trustee for the Catholic Charities Corporation (1994 - 2002) and was a founding member and former chairperson of the Catholic Charities Corporation's Planned Giving Committee. In 2011, Ms. Vaselaney was elected to the Board of Directors for the American Lung Association of the Midland States. She is also a former Member of the State Board at the American Lung Association of Ohio.
