

Public Company Overview

The Public Company Practice Area provides advice to our public company clients on a broad range of corporate and securities issues including advice to the Board and its committees, purchases and sales of securities, the preparation and review of proxy materials and Forms 10-K, 10-Q, and 8-K, compliance with requirements for disclosure of significant events including Regulation FD, compliance with stock exchange governance requirements and compliance with the short-swing profits liability and reporting requirements under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

In this context, we attend regularly board and committee meetings to provide advice to our public clients. We assist in the structuring and drafting of stock incentive and other compensation plans and in the negotiation and preparation of employment agreements.

Representative public companies which we represent or have represented include:
